1. Introduction

The Federation of Indian Petroleum Industry (FIPI) is an apex society of entities in the Indian hydrocarbon sector and acts as an industry interface with government and regulatory authorities. It supports the member organisations and government in resolution of issues and evolution of policies and regulations. It represents the industry on various government bodies, committees and task forces and has been instrumental in voicing industry concerns with various ministries and regulators. All major companies operating in the oil & gas sector in India are members of FIPI.

FIPI has a Governing Council which is represented by the top-level executives drawn from the large oil and gas companies operating in India. It has a Director General as its functional head and leadership team consisting of experts drawn from the respective functional domains. It has 15 functional committees which cover various aspects of the oil and gas business and are represented by senior professional executives from the member companies.

FIPI organizes seminars, conferences, workshops, roundtable meetings and brings out study reports to support the Govt. with evidence-based policy recommendations. FIPI organizes seminars, conferences, workshops, roundtable meetings and brings out study reports to support the Govt. with evidence-based policy recommendations. India Energy Week (IEW) is the flagship annual event of FIPI.

FIPI on behalf of the oil & gas industry organises annual award programme where the performance of companies is judged by a respected Award committee and an eminent panel of Selection Committee, and winners are felicitated by the Hon'ble Petroleum Minister of India

FIPI participates in various international conferences and exhibitions and is open to collaborate and forge alliances with international bodies and associations to promote the energy industry with a special focus on oil and gas industry, sustainability, and energy transition.

India Energy Week

FIPI under the patronage of Ministry of Petroleum & Natural Gas (MoP&NG), Government of India (GoI) and in association with dmg events, is organizing the India Energy Week "IEW 2026" during 27-30 January 2026 at ATI ONGC, Goa (www.indiaenergyweek.com).

India Energy Week will convene the global energy industry to address the most pressing challenges facing the sector, offering an influential platform for collaboration and innovation that will shape the future of energy worldwide. As India emerges as a global leader in the energy transition and a major player in the global economy, India Energy Week 2026 will showcase the nation's model for a low-carbon growth economy.

The event will highlight India's commitment to energy access, security, affordability and sustainability, featuring innovative solutions, ambitious decarbonisation targets, and significant investment opportunities. By fostering global collaboration, India Energy Week
